Ministry Highlight by Pastor Halleck

The Loudest Silence

When Christians are commanded to sing, and they stay silent, their actions betray their claims. Our fear of fellow man can sometimes overshadow our love for our Savior. Christ gave His life for us; it only makes sense that we would be willing to give Him our dignity. Sometimes fear grips us in a way that makes us disobey God's commands. Apprehension or anxiety can clamp our tongues so tightly that it seems as though God Himself does not merit our praise.

Sing unto your God,

- ◆ the One who gives you life.
- ◆ the One who offers eternity in heaven.
- ◆ the One who parted the Red Sea.
- ◆ the One who opened the eyes of the blind.
- ◆ the One who made the lame to walk again.
- ◆ the One who conquered death and the grave.
- ◆ the One who gives you strength when you need it most.

The God of the Bible demands our praise. The God we serve deserves our praise. The God we love welcomes our most feeble effort to bring glory to His name.

O sing unto the LORD a new song: sing unto the LORD, all the earth. Psalm 96:1
